

Vehicle Support Engineer

Seeking a dynamic engineer to support electric and hybrid electric buses and trucks in the NY Tri-State area. Must a strong background in electronics, troubleshooting, wire diagrams and good communication skills. Candidate must be able to document work in writing and have strong PC skills. An interest in the automotive industry is a plus. Job requires a car and good driving record. Job qualifies for competitive vacation package and stock option plan. Growing company with potential for growth to support/direct national vehicle deployment plans. Bachelor or Associate degree in Electrical Engineering a plus.